Esteemed Guru and Caudillo,

How can I ever thank you for sending me a framed copy of the lovely ditty by [redacted]

[redacted] Their poetic style is only exceeded by their intuitive literary erudition -- truly deathless prose.
I shall display this paronomastic masterwork in a location suitable to the genius which created it.

Seriously, I do want to thank you and the other members of the Dundee Society for inviting me to your annual reunion and for inducting me into the Society.
The great Siva has indeed smiled upon me.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
